MORGAN IS NOW COLOSSUS OF THE WORLD

Golden Streams Pour Into His Coffers From Every Corner of the World

HE IS OUTDISTANCING
THE ROCKEFELLERS

All Must Come to Him When
Last Gun Is Fired
In Europe

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—Is America breeding a crop of new millionaires? The Chicago Tribune declares that stock advances since the war began shows that the market value of thirteen representative listed companies benefiting from war orders has increased $492,000,000 since January 1. It scores the large unlisted corporations. Hundreds of smaller firms are also described as "wallowing in war prosperity."

Charles M. Schwab's steel properties, worth $7,000,000 before the war, are now quoted as being worth $49,000,000, says the Tribune.

Continuing the Tribune says: "Over all this, astride the several states like a Colossus shunting into his coffers the golden streams pouring from every corner of the land looms the figure of J. P. Morgan, not in millions, but in hundreds of millions."

"According to estimate all persons on the inside will have to come to Mr. Morgan when the last death dealing shell or torpedo explodes in hell-tangled Europe. The Rockefeller will be out-distanced."

The Tribune also points out that the captains of industry are in fear of spy plots. It is also shown that there is a rather growing insistence among workers for a more equal share of the profits of the enormous industries.

WOULD ENJOIN BEES FROM STINGING HIM

Chino Fruit Grower Makes Unusual Demand On the City Council

CHINO, Sept. 14.—The fact that honey bees have been injuring the peaches and apricots on his trees and while drying, and also stinging him because he sought to drive them away, W. J. Tebo of this city has appealed to the City Council for legislation against the honey makers. He classifies the insects with maulers, highwaymen and holdups. The solons were kept busy for some time trying to devise an ordinance and a penalty that would be constitutional—that the little bees could not overthrow in court. At last they gave up in despair, and instructed Marshal Stark to take his six-shooter and make a German drive on the bees.

CANAL BUILDER IS LOS ANGELES VISITOR

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 14.—Maj.-Gen. George W. Goethals, builder of the Panama Canal, arrived here this afternoon from San Diego accompanied by Mrs. Goethals and their son. All entertainments arranged in his behalf will, in compliance with his expressed desire, be strictly informal. The distinguished official will visit Catalina Thursday and Riverside on Friday. Because of a previous engagement with the Pasadena Board of Trade, General Goethals will not be able to attend the Tatt birthday luncheon at the Alexandria at noon tomorrow. Instead, he will be the guest of honor at a luncheon given by the Pasadena body at the Hotel Maryland.

HOW NEWS OF WAR PENETRATED ARCTICS

LONDON, Sept. 2 (by mail).—How the news of the big war penetrated to the Arctic Circle and rooted out an Englishman who has just now returned to fight, was told here today. Henry James, a subaltern, was 200 miles North of Edmonton when one day an Indian passed his camp and volunteered the information that a big war was on.

"That's all right," James answered. "Mexico and the United States are at it."

The Indian, however, insisted that it was a bigger fight, and James later struck camp and journeyed to the nearest trading post, where he learned that England had been at war for months. He immediately returned to Canada and sailed for England.

METHODISTS ARE PATRIOTIC
SEATTLE, Sept. 14.—The Puget Sound Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church at its closing session defeated a resolution deploring further national preparedness plans for war.

Pan-American Conference Likely to Recognize Caranza

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—It is officially announced that the third Pan American conference seeking Mexican peace will meet in New York on Saturday. Illness of the Brazilian Minister Degamba caused a postponement from Wednesday. Carranza's recognition as provisional president of Mexico is considered reasonably certain, but the announcement of such a move will probably be delayed until all foreigners leave Villa territory, lest the news cause trouble, with serious results to Americans and others.

Disavowal Submarine Act Only Will Satisfy America

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—High administration circles flatly denied the report that President Wilson is favorably considering arbitration of the question of reparations for American lives lost through the Arabic torpedo. It is positively stated that arbitration is as not the issue that Ambassador Bernstorff and Secretary

Lansing discussed yesterday. Only a disavowal of the submarine act will satisfy America. The administration is playing a waiting game. Secretary Lansing told Bernstorff that America's views of Germany's submarine warfare must be disavowed and these have been forwarded to Berlin. Action is impossible until a reply is received.

ONCE A WEALTHY MAN, HE DIES OLD, POOR, SUICIDE

George Rock, Who Sold Mines
For $250,000, Found Dead
On a Cot in Shed

A man who at one time was worth $275,000 was found dead this morning on an old cot in a shed back of 214 North Sycamore street.

Death came to George Rock evidently with suicidal intent. Last night about 9:30 o'clock he was seen going into the yard at 214 North Sycamore, where Walter Burton lives. This morning Burton discovered the dead body.

Carbolic acid was the agent used by Rock to take his own life. Two or three days ago he asked Dr. Pullen, a veterinarian, to give him some carbolic acid, saying he wanted it to wash shoulders of mules at John Osterman's ranch at El Toro. This acid was diluted so that it was only one-tenth acid. Coroner Wimbler found the bottle empty near the cot on which Rock died.

Sunday Rock saw Osterman and told him his stomach pained him greatly. It is believed by Coroner Wimbler that Rock had taken the diluted acid and that it did not kill.

Yesterday Rock went to a physician and got a prescription for acid, saying it was for use in washing some shoulders of mules. This bottle was found empty where it had evidently been thrown by Rock after he swallowed the acid.

It appears that Rock fortified himself for his last act by drinking liquor. The coroner has evidence, that the man's stomach contained alcohol.

Rock, a German by birth, aged 76, lived in this section for about forty years, coming here with the early pioneers.

As a young man he was a tumbler in Dan Rice's circus, in which Henry Seymour, now dead, a pioneer of this city, was a ringmaster.

Many years ago while prospecting in Montana he discovered a valuable mine that he sold to the Clark interests for $175,000. Another mine was sold by him to the same parties at about the same time for $75,000.

From Montana Rock went to San Francisco, where he lost all of his money.

For a good many years Rock had been a laborer in the grain fields. He worked for the Borchards frequently. For the last two years he has been employed on the Prothro ranch at El Toro. He returned to Santa Ana about a month ago, complaining that the work and heat in the fields were too much for him. He spent about ten days with Walter Burton, and then got a room at the Richelieu. In a shed back of his house, Burton has a cot upon which Rock frequently reclined for a nap during the day. How he came to go to the cot last night instead of to his room is not known.

When he first got up this morning, Burton saw the body on the cot, but the appearance was so natural that Burton thought Rock was asleep. Going into the back yard again half an hour later Burton observed that the attitude had no changed in the least. He investigated and found the man to be dead. Rock was fully dressed.

AMERICANS ORDERED TO LEAVE MEXICO WITHOUT DELAY

NOGALES, Sept. 14.—Americans here owning property in Sonora, where Americans are working, say they have received orders to the effect that Washington wants all Americans to leave Mexico immediately. Several automobiles have departed from here to fetch Americans working on ranches and in the mines in Southern Sonora. United States Counsel Frederick Simpich refuses to confirm or deny the report, stating that he is unable to discuss the matter. The story, however, is substantiated by statements of the men warned, who say that Simpich received an urgent telegram from Washington to get all Americans out of his Mexican territory immediately. It is believed here that this means immediate action of some kind against Mexico.

GERMAN MONEY USED TO CAUSE A BIG STRIKE

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 14.—Vice President John Kean, of the Western shermen's union, has reiterated his statement that German money to influence working men and labor leaders to cause a gigantic dock strike and tie up all Atlantic and Pacific shipping has been used. Kean said the men were promised large strike benefits. "These promises," he declares, "unquestionably came through German agents." It is declared that Germans sought to prevent the signing of the new agreement with the union at Seattle.

FRENCH MERCHANTMAN TORPEDOED; CREW SAVED

LONDON, Sept. 14.—The French merchantman Sebou, a fifteen hundred ton vessel, has been torpedoed and sunk. The crew was rescued.

LONDON NOW PREPARED TO FIGHT RAIDS BY ZEPPELINS

LONDON, Sept. 14.—This city is prepared to fight Zeppelins. Admiral Cote is authority for the statement that naval gunners have been appointed to take charge of the defenses. Secret plans have been formulated. One of the plans it is said urges the adoption of the Paris system which means maintaining a constant air patrol. The maintenance of a night patrol on the East coast to give warning of the approach of raiders is also advocated.

SIXTH ZEPPELIN RAID MADE ON ENGLISH COAST

LONDON, Sept. 14.—The sixth Zeppelin raid within a week has occurred. It is officially announced that the east coast was again attacked but there was no damage or casualties. Previous announcements reported that in an aeroplane attack on the Kentish coast four were wounded.

MUST PREPARE FOR EFFECTIVE DEFENSE

Should Have Million Men In Training For War All the Time

LIKewise TRAIN FOR USEFUL VOCATION

Camp and Warship School
For Preparing For Arts of Peace

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 14.—"This nation is in a perilous position because of the European war; we must prepare for effective defense; but a standing army of adequate proportions is un-American." After summing up the situation thus, John A. Lapp, in a statement issued today, suggested the application of vocational education to the army and navy as the solution. Lapp, as a member of President Wilson's commission on vocational education, drew up the bill that will be presented to Congress. He is the author of Indiana's vocational law, which has been a model for other states.

"Vocational education and national defense should go hand in hand," said Lapp. "In that way only," he said, "can the nation maintain an adequate standing army without tremendous waste of human energy and without providing a menace to our democratic ideals. We want men trained for war but whose thoughts are of peace. Why not couple up the two and while making men efficient for defensive war, make them also efficient productive workers? Let us have a million men in training all the time for effective defense but let that million be trained all the time for useful employment. Let every camp and battleship become a school where a few hours a day can be spent in preparing for the arts of peace."

Troops Should Be Taught
"There is no reason," he continued, "why the army and navy should not do a large part of the work needed for their support. Around every army post the government should own large tracts of land for cultivation where the sciences of agriculture, forestry and animal husbandry in all their phases would be taught and from which the troops could be supported."

He suggested that arrangements be made to give the carpenter, plumber or machinist who joins the army supplementary education along these lines so that he would become a better carpenter, plumber or machinist. However," he declared, "to get the broadest benefits from such a scheme, different periods of enlistment would be necessary. Enlistments for from four years down to six months could be allowed, and vocational training in lines requiring greater or less training could be provided, as the case may be. The six month enlistment term would be an effective cure for unemployment, because it would offer both a job and schooling."

In Perilous Position
"Undoubtedly this nation is in a perilous position," said the educator. "We are the only world power not engaged in conflict. As a great neutral we have become the object of envy and hate by all the warring countries, and this will increase as we waver from world trade at the expense of our old-time rivals." Lapp also called attention to the fact that this nation always has had large bodies of men with training for war and said he believed the scheme outlined would give no ground for such fear.

WOMAN TO EDIT BAY CITY PAPER ONE DAY

Suffrage Leader, Mrs. Belmont, to Issue San Francisco Bulletin Saturday

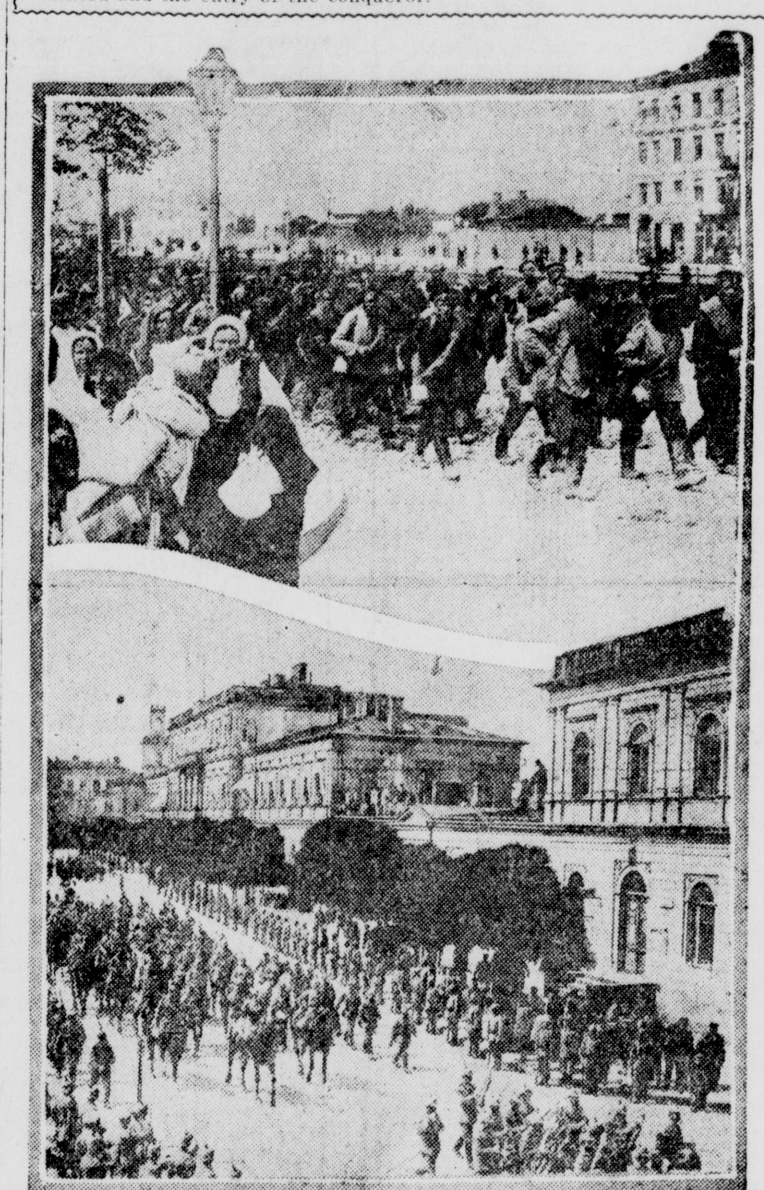

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 14.—Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, wealthy New Yorker, who is a leader in the equal rights movement, will edit the San Francisco Bulletin Saturday. Mrs. Belmont will pick her own staff, probably from the ranks of the suffragists attending the Women Voters Convention, the first of its kind in the history of the nation. Mrs. Belmont will absolutely control the paper's policy Saturday and will write and have written whatever she pleases.

POSTAL AGAIN CUTS

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—Clarence H. Mackay, president of the Postal Telegraph-Cable Company, announces that the company has made a second reduction in the leased wire night rate for the press, the second reduction being one-half of the present rate. This second reduction now makes the night rate one-fourth of what it was sixty days ago.

Mr. Mackay, in making the announcement, said: "Our wires are idle at night and so we can afford to transmit news freely and cheaply. We have decided to do so. The whole public will get the benefit."

ARRANGING FOR STATE SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION HERE SOON

Local committees are at work arranging for the State Sunday School Convention which will be held in Santa Ana October 12, 13 and 14.

An executive meeting of the committee chairmen was held Sunday afternoon in the First Presbyterian Church with Rev. Paul G. Stevens, general chairman, presiding. The State Association was represented by the General Secretary, Dr. H. A. Dowling; the Superintendent of Secondary Division, Mrs. H. A. Dowling; and Superintendent of Elementary Division, Mrs. Lucy C. Bassford, who aided in every way to help the local people in making their plans.

The afternoon and evening of October 12 will be the Orange County convention, when all business necessary will be attended to and officers for the coming year elected.

The State Convention will commence October 13. The First Methodist Church has been selected as the convention church and the United Presbyterian, Congregational and First Baptist will be used for auxiliary meetings.

The morning sessions will all be held in the Methodist Church. After noon sessions will be conferences of the three divisions, adult, secondary and elementary, each in a different church.

On Wednesday evening there will be two banquets, one for the older boys of the secondary division, and the others for the girls. This division is in the hands of Mrs. H. A. Dowling, assisted by E. M. Brown and Mrs. Theo. Wimbler. This division of Sunday school work is the one to be emphasized in the convention. The International Association is sending here Mr. Alexander, who is a specialist with children of the ages included in this division. There will also be others present who are specializing along these lines. They are from among Southern California workers. The elementary division will have a luncheon on Thursday and all workers in the Cradle Roll, beginners, primary or junior work, will be greatly benefited by the good, thoughtful helps Mrs. Bassford, Mrs. Hagerman and others will bring them. On Thursday evening it is planned to have a men's parade and it is hoped by the convention people that the Christian men of Santa Ana and Orange County will turn out in a body and make this a grand success. The parade will be followed by a banquet for men before an evening session.

Besides the persons mentioned in this article, C. R. Fisher, the General Secretary of the Northern California Association, will be in attendance. Mr. Fisher is a man of large experience in the work in California and all who hear him will feel he is the right man in the right place.

By a vote of the committee on Sunday afternoon all delegates outside of Orange and Los Angeles counties will be entertained on the Harvard plan—bed and breakfast.

When the State Convention was in Santa Ana some five or six years ago, 1015 delegates registered, and it is hoped the coming convention will be as well attended as that was and with such speakers as have been promised the committees are making plans for entertaining as many this year.

The following are the local committees, "and," said a leader today, "should any one of these call on you for help in this great work, take right hold and help." Chairman, Rev. Paul G. Stevens; vice-chairman, Rev. J. G. Kennedy; secretary, Miss Lula Minter; treasurer, A. H. Theal; publicity, Chas. S. Shaw; music, Prof. Garstang; registration, Mrs. Lea Warren; reception, Rev. Paul Wright; exhibits, Miss Hester Covington; decoration, Miss M. Birdina Henry; entertainment, Mrs. N. M. Smart; parade, Col. S. H. Finley; ushers and paces, Theo. Wimbler; men's banquet, Judge Z. B. West; elementary division, Mrs. J. C. Winans; secondary division, E. M. Brown.

WESTERN BANKS NOT TO PROTEST ALLIES LOAN

Are Too Busy Attending to Business to Bother
About It Now

TOO FAR AWAY FROM BIG MONEY CENTERS

State Is Rapidly Recovering
From Timidity Felt First Year of War

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 14.—Replying to a question whether western bankers plan a protest against the proposed billion dollar allies war loan, A. E. Edwards, president of the First National Bank of Pasadena, said:

"Western bankers are too busy attending to their own business to bother over what eastern financiers are doing. We are too far from the money centers to be materially affected by such projects. My opinion is that western bankers will not be asked to contribute to this loan unless syndicates are formed."

"The business communities in California are rapidly recovering from the timidity felt during the first year of warfare due to the uncertainty of what might occur from day to day. Business is now on the up grade. California will profit from trade balances being established by European countries."

"Whatever affects one section of the country favorably affects ultimately other sections. Southern California and San Francisco are feeling the effects of great sums of money being brought to the state by exposition visitors."

GERMANS THREATEN TO DRAW SAVINGS FROM BANKS

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 14.—Germans residing in Milwaukee threaten to withdraw their savings from the banks if local banks enter the proposed billion dollar allies loan, according to a prominent banker. A majority of bankers are silent regarding the reports. A similar move is planned for the West.

FIFTY MILLIONS URGED FOR GREAT HIGHWAY

OAKLAND, Sept. 14.—Samuel Hill, son-in-law of J. J. Hill, one of the foremost good roads boosters, asked the Pan-American Road Congress Thursday to endorse a proposed government appropriation of $50,000,000 for the construction of an oceanview highway between Mexico and British Columbia. Resolutions detailing the plan are being prepared. Hill declares the proposed road would supplement coast defenses and be an important military asset.

Comb Several Texas Counties
For Armed Forces From Mexico

BROWNSVILLE, Sept. 14.—Two thousand soldiers and 500 civilians and Texas Rangers have combed Cameron and Hidalgo counties hunting for Mexicans believed to be massing in the direction of Harlingen for a big attack. The Rangers pursued an armed force in that vicinity. The authorities are arresting every suspicious Mexican. The government has ordered that all male Mexicans be excluded from the American side, following an influx of 600 on ferries. Five hundred Mexicans crossed the Matamoros bridge into Brownsville. American troops are entrenching near Fort Brown, opposite Carranza's Matamoros trenches.

CITY TRUSTEES

ADVISES BOARD TO FIRST ASK EXTENSION

Declared Changing Through Cars to North Main Would Injure East Fourth

GO SLOW ON REQUESTS OF PACIFIC ELECTRIC

Situation In Regard to Curve and Switch On Orange Line Is Discussed

Trustees went into office this morning had developed to the point where the P. E. had been given permission by the State Railroad Commission to extend its line across the Santa Fe and S. P. tracks on East Fourth street, provided an interlocking switch system is established.

Within the last ten days the city has received two petitions from the P. E. bringing up the whole matter again. One petition asks for the curve at Fourth and Main and the other asks for a switch at the Santa Clara crossing of the S. P. This curve would be from the west side of the P. E. opposite where West Santa Clara comes into Main street, westward on to the S. P. reservation. The map shows a proposal for a sidetrack running from Main street toward the Santiago creek, on the S. P. reservation.

Yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock there gathered at the city hall a dozen or more men invited into the conference by the City Trustees. Mayor A. J. Visel called the meeting to order, and asked Trustee George McPhee to explain the situation.

"We want your advice," said McPhee, after he had outlined the situation. "I am told that an interlocking system on East Fourth street would cost $70,000, and it is my opinion that because of the cost and the small revenue derived from the extension the P. E. will not make the extension. This city could proceed to bring suit for the forfeiture of the P. E. franchise in this city, but if we did sue and after years of litigation got judgment, the P. E. would pull up its tracks, which we do not want done. We would also be severing diplomatic relations with the P. E., which is not a good step for us to take."

"This is quite a problem. I made the motion naming this committee because I considered the men I named as representative."

Frank E. W. L. Grubb and O. B. Alderman, members of the last city board, discussed various phases of the controversy with the P. E.

Grubb declared against allowing any switch on North Main. He said that the S. P. crossing is a big hazard now. He spoke from experience, as his automobile was recently bumped by an S. P. engine at the crossing. Moreover, he said the switch would mean sidetracks full of freight cars.

Alderman said that if any franchise is given the P. E. it should have provisions for a new P. E. depot here and for installing Trolley rails in the streets, which would run away with the bad condition of tracks.

Ey pointed out a number of his experiences with the P. E. in which the present situation was made clearer.

"I think that it is vitally important that the P. E. maintain its activity on East Fourth street, whether it crosses the steam roads or not," said S. H. Finley." G. W. Minter expressed his opinion along the same line. They emphasized the advisability of protecting the present arrangements for a Los Angeles line terminus at the steam road's depots.

"Allowing the P. E. to take all of its through cars to Orange would not be fair to East Fourth street," said E. D. Waffle. "We have had many promises from the P. E. Years ago it promised us a depot which we have never received. Its tracks are in bad shape all of the time. Damage from these tracks to wheels of my livery buggies has cost me hundreds of dollars."

Colonel Finley said that after the P. E. gets a franchise for a switch on to the S. P. right-of-way on North Main, the S. P. could put in as many storage tracks as it wished, the city having no control over the reservation. The well known fact that the switch is desired so that through the P. E. the S. P. could get freight from Orange was brought out.

Minter said that the arrangement would be of no great benefit to Orange as the freight rates to Orange on the S. P. would be no less than those on the Santa Fe. Shippers of oranges from Orange can get cars transferred to the S. P. from the Santa Fe at Santa Ana now.

M. Nisson of North Main street gave the viewpoint of residents of that street as being opposed to the Santa Clara switch.

E. E. Vincent declared that it would be an imposition on North Main street to carry out the requests of the P. E.

J. A. Timmons, who resides on North Main, said that so far as P. E. service is concerned Orange now has just as good P. E. service as he has. He has to take a local car to reach the Los Angeles cars. He thought the efforts of the Trustees should be to reduce traffic and activities on Main street, the state highway, rather than to increase them.

G. A. Edgar after discussing the situation made the motion that carried unanimously. His opinion was that the city has a right to expect the East Fourth street agreement, as stipulated in the franchise given the P. E. years ago, to be carried out. East Fourth street should be protected against an abandonment of that street except for local service.

"I move you that it be the advice of this gathering," said Edgar, "that the P. E. be notified that it is expected to carry out its franchise provisions, and that other matters may then be taken up."

This motion carried, and the advisory committee's conference with the City Trustees adjourned. Trustees Visel, Tubbs, Maryatt, McPhee and Greenleaf were present at the meeting.

For months and months the city board that went out of office last April negotiated with the P. E. in regard to getting the tracks extended east on Fourth street to the city limits. At the same time the P. E. was asking for a franchise for a curve at the northwest corner of Fourth and Main streets so that through cars of the Los Angeles-Santa Ana line might go through to Orange. At one time there was the suggestion of a request for a franchise to allow a switch off the North Main street P. E. line at Santa Clara avenue on to the Southern Pacific. That suggestion met with a storm of disapproval, and the project was not urged by the P. E.

WHEN YOU WASH YOUR HAIR DON'T USE SOAP

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain mulsumed coconut oil, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats soaps or anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

MAY HAVE TO RE-FILM ELECTION PARADE, MOVIE MAN SAYS

That there is a possibility of the Majestic-Reliance Motion Picture Company having to return to Santa Ana to re-take the films of the election parade in "Double Trouble" on account of the films being defective, was stated yesterday afternoon by Captain F. Du Chailu Dalton, who was in Santa Ana on business.

When asked how soon his company would return to Santa Ana to take another picture, Captain Dalton said that it would likely be in about two weeks' time.

According to Captain Dalton, Lillian Gish will be the star to appear in the next film to be staged by the Majestic-Reliance Company in Santa Ana.

Captain Dalton was told that there have been rumors current in this city to the effect that one of the reasons why his company had selected Santa Ana as a location for screens was because it was proposed to sell stock here in the company. In answer to this, Captain Dalton said:

"There is nothing to the rumor. There is no stock in the Majestic-Reliance Company for sale."

ENGLAND MUST BE ORGANIZED AT ONCE

David Lloyd George Sounds Warning In What War Moves Mean

BY J. W. T. MASON
(Written for the United Press)
NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—That the great world struggle cannot be indefinitely prolonged is the new indication given by David Lloyd-George

In his statement, the munitions minister quoted a "shrewd and sagacious observer as telling him that 'the course pursued by this country during the next three months would decide the fate of the war.' By that time winter will have set in and if the allies are not then ready for an offensive campaign during the winter season, it is apparent that Lloyd-George believes there will be a 'slouching into disaster.' 'If vital decisions are postponed until too late," said his statement significantly, "if we neglect to make ready for all probable eventualities; if in fact we give ground for the accusation that we are slouching into disaster, as if we were walking along the ordinary paths of peace, without an enemy in sight, then I can see no hope."

While this statement does not mean that Lloyd-George sees defeat ahead, it clearly indicates that he does foresee an inability on the allies' part to dictate terms of peace.

PROGRESSING ON ORNAMENTAL LIGHT PLAN IS REPORT

Steady progress is being made by the joint committee of the Chamber of Commerce and Merchants and Manufacturers' Association having in charge the circulating of petitions looking toward the installation of ornamental lights on Fourth street from Mortimer to Ross and on Main between Second and Sixth.

S. H. Findley, chairman of the committee, reports that the great majority of property owners along the sections of the streets it is proposed to light are in favor of installing the system. That the Vrooman proceedings or, which amounts to practically the same thing, an assessment district, will not have to be instituted except in one or two cases, appears to be the consensus of opinion among the committeemen.

Finley states that he will call a meeting of the committee within the next day or so in order that it may be determined just what progress is being made in regard to having the property owners on Fourth street and Main street sign up for the ornamental lights.

It is reported that the work of obtaining signatures is being delayed somewhat owing to the fact that a number of the larger property owners on Fourth street are away on vacations.

"We are going to keep right on with the work," said Finley. "Santa Ana needs ornamental lights in order to keep pace with other cities of the county. The citizens are beginning to realize this and I feel certain that we shall be successful in installing lights on Fourth street and Main. Of course, we would all like to see other sections of the city lighted by ornamental lights, but what we consider of most importance at the present time is to make a beginning. Getting ornamental lights is like getting asphalt pavements. Once it is realized that a benefit that certain sections derive from ornamental lights, movements to put in additional lights are certain to spring up in other parts of the city."

TOO MUCH BOTHER TO BE JUSTICE AT YORBA; AUGUST LEMKE RESIGNS

Salary of $10 a Month Is Not Enough to Keep Township Officer on Job

August Lemke says that the position of justice of the peace in Yorba township is a nuisance and a botheration.

Therefore he resigns. Lemke visited the court house this morning and left his resignation for the Board of Supervisors. He said that $10 a month is not compensation for the time it takes to hear the troubles of those who seek him for redress.

"Whenever a Mexican gets into a row, I have to quit my plow to listen to the tale of woe," said Lemke. "I cannot afford to quit my ranch work to hear the long drawn-out stories of alleged offenses."

Few cases are tried in Lemke's township. It is not the time in court that he objects to. It is time taken for giving respectful hearing to those who come to him with their troubles.

Lemke's resignation is worded to take effect on October 1. A successor will be appointed by the Board of Supervisors.

DID NOT STOP AS HE HEARD NO CRASH REASON GIVEN

Not hearing a crash and believing that the Ford automobile which turned over east of Tustin yesterday at about 1 o'clock had gotten safely by, are given as reasons by William H. Leland, of East Orange, N. J., as why he did not stop his Metz roadster.

"There was a large truck standing in the road," said Leland yesterday afternoon, in speaking of the accident. "I was driving toward Santa Ana and had just gotten past the truck when Edward T. Hale, in his car, was opposite me. I glanced partially around at Hale. I saw he did not have any too much room in which to pass, but it looked to me as though he were going to pass safely. Neither I nor Thomas Hopes, who was with me in the Metz, heard any crash and for this reason we did not stop."

"When an officer stopped us at Santa Ana and told us we were wanted for causing another automobile to go into the ditch, we were surprised to say the least. We were certain that the roadster that was wanted was one other than ours."

"Hopes and I went with Hale and paid for the damage done to Hale's car. The damage amounted to about $75."

"We left Philadelphia on July 31. We think that touring the country by automobile is one of the most delightful experiences possible. We find that traveling in the way we do is very inexpensive. We are certainly enjoying our trip."

THE ROAD TO HEALTH

Ordinary Human Ailments

Largely a Matter of Improper Diet

One of the leading physicians of the country said that the royal road to health lay between the mouth and the stomach. We presume he meant that most people would be well if they ate and drank only those things which could be properly digested by the stomach.

This tends to emphasize the great value to the human race of that wonderful food product—malted milk. Palatable to the taste, quickly prepared, easily assimilated, nutritious, strengthening and invigorating, it constitutes an ideal article of diet for young and old, strong and weak, alike. If you are sick, it will help make you well; if you are well, it will help keep you so.

There is a great difference in malted milk, however, and results are sure to be unsatisfactory if an inferior quality is used.

The World's Exposition at San Francisco has just set the seal of approval on that old reliable brand known as "Borden's Malted Milk in the Square Package" by awarding it "The Grand Prize"—the highest possible award.

Merit will tell, and one cannot afford to experiment with inferior substitutes. Insist upon the best—"Borden's Malted Milk in the Square Package"—and you will not be disappointed. At all modern druggists.—Advertisement.

COUNTY HOSPITAL IMPROVEMENTS PROGRESSING IN EARNEST

The contemplated improvements at the County Hospital grounds are now progressing in earnest. Grading, making curbing, hauling sand, rock and cement has disturbed the usual peaceful quiet of the place for the past few weeks. The mixer is now at work laying the cement foundation for asphalt pavement at the rate of about 500 feet a day and the work is being well done. The cement is being laid on four inches thick on a solid rolled bed.

It is planned to continue the boulevard, twenty-three feet wide, to the front entrance of the hospital building; thence the asphalt pavement continues entirely around the main building, eighteen feet wide, with a lateral leading to the nurses' dormitory. From the back of the main building two eighteen-foot driveways lead to the back street fronting the two rows of cottages and on either side of the chapel and clubhouse in the rear. Cement sidewalks will line the driveways and will also connect all of the out buildings with the hospital.

As soon as the rains set in it is proposed to seed the large square between the main building and the clubhouse to lawn. The front on either side of the twenty-three-foot driveway as well as the circle in the park on the north side of the main building will also be set in lawn. When these improvements are completed and time is given for the shrubbery and ornamental trees in the park to mature the Orange County Hospital grounds will be one of the most beautiful spots in the state.

Installing Library
A special effort is being made to establish a library at the County Hospital for the benefit of the patients and old people at the Poor Farm," said Dr. Harry Zaiser today. "Shelving is being put up in the club room to accommodate books. About a ton of magazines and a number of books have been donated and are being classified and catalogued. All persons having books, especially fiction, that they are through with, are requested to donate them to the County Hospital library. If not too far distant the books will be called for. No more magazines are wanted except those of the current year. We embrace this opportunity on behalf of the County Hospital, to thank the Public Library of Anaheim and Orange for liberal donations. The address is 'Library, County Hospital.'"

PROTECTS PUBLIC IN PURCHASE OF STOCKS

Commissioner Carnahan Eliminating Old Time Abuses By Stock Corporations

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 13.—One of the old-time abuses of stock company promotion is being largely eliminated by Commissioner of Corporations H. L. Carnahan, through the requirement that shares of stock issued in exchange for patents, secret formulas, undeveloped mining claims, intangible or unproven values, must be deposited as an escrow so that none of it can be placed on the market in opposition to the company's efforts to finance itself.

As a result of this policy certificates for nearly 4,000,000 shares of stock, having an aggregate par value of $4,332,880, have been deposited at the order of the commissioner, most of it in the safe deposit vault of the Corporation Department at Sacramento.

Early in the experience of the new department it was found that one of the favorite get-rich-quick schemes of the old-time promoter was to organize a company, take half of more of its stock for an asset of unproven value and create a market for the shares through sale of treasury stock of the company. Whereupon Mr. Promoter would surreptitiously unload his own shares on the public and pass on to the next scheme leaving his brainchild to fare for itself. Aside from the unfair profits accruing to the promoter the practice was unusually ruinous to the company, the market for its shares being destroyed and its prospects for securing funds to carry on its plan of business terminated.

Under the escrow plan, while the locator of a mining claim, the inventor or the compounder of a formula or the developer of a process for his benefit, skill or enterprise, he can not cash in until the company has been financed and developed a going business, or at least had an opportunity to fairly test out its plan of operation. In other words the inventor or locator must take his chances with the investors who put up their money against his ideas or skill or judgment. If the project makes good his shares are good. If it fails he has not had an opportunity to unload at the expense of other shareholders and to the detriment of the company.

The 4,000,000 shares of handsomely engraved certificates in the vault of the department are being added to almost daily.

COURT SNATCHES A BABE FROM FATHER

Mother Who Has No Husband Wins Fight Against Man Who Wronged Her

RIVERSIDE, Sept. 14.—The petition of Alice Judd for possession of her child, held against her will by Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Covington, of Beaumont, was heard by Judge Thomas yesterday afternoon in the superior court, and after one of the most scathing rebukes ever given in a court in this city the prayer of the petitioner was granted.

District Attorney Lyman Evans represented the petitioner, and after hearing the petition, Judge Thomas asked if the father of the child was in the court room. Mr. Evans told him he was and pointed to Covington. "Are you the father of this child?" the court asked.

Covington admitted that he was. "Were you a married man at the time this act was committed?" Covington admitted that he was.

It was then that Judge Thomas proceeded to tell Covington a few things. "You do not need any law in this case. It don't take a millionth part of a second to decide to whom the child belongs. There is no middle ground. Only by process of law will anyone ever get this child except the mother."

Mother Has Right to Child
"She has a right to do as she sees fit with the child so long as she is a proper person to take care of it."

"If I can find out where this crime was committed against this little woman I will direct that criminal action be taken against this man to see that he produces bond of sufficient sum to care for and maintain this child until it is of age."

"I have no patience with this class of people, when a man has a wife of his own and where he forgets his fidelity to that wife and becomes the father of a child to another woman."

"Mr. Evans, you are directed to immediately take steps that will comply with the law in this case. I will make any order that will protect this little mother. The father of the child has nothing to do with it, except to pay the freight, and the court will see that he does that."

"The prayer of the petitioner is granted."

TRUSTEE MARYATT IN AUTO-TROLLEY CRASH ON NORTH MAIN

Defective brakes came near causing City Trustee O. H. Maryatt to have a serious accident at the corner of Sixth and Main streets at about 9 o'clock this morning. Trustee Maryatt was driving west on Sixth street. As he reached the Pacific Electric tracks he noticed a trolley car approaching from the north on Main. He applied his brakes but they did not hold sufficiently. The car went part way on to the track, the trolley hitting the front end of the automobile, bending the axle and demolishing the right front wheel. The auto was shunted around to the south. Trustee Maryatt was not thrown out of the car.

APRICOT PRICES ARE NOW UP TO 7 CENTS

The prices for dried apricots have been creeping up the last four weeks. Prices offered San Jose growers are quoted at from seven to nine cents.

"There is very little left in the hands of growers," said Dr. Bernike of Tustin today. "In this county there are twenty-five or thirty tons held by growers who are looking for better than seven cents per pound. During the last week some apricots have been picked up from six cents until now they have reached seven cents for first-class fruit. To say how much more they will advance before Christmas would be a mere guess. They may reach seven and a half or eight cents, or they may drop below seven. About a carload remains to interest those growers who are still holding and to serve as an incentive to stand together."

WANTS LIGHTING OF STREETS AT LOWER RATE

ORANGE, Sept. 14.—The City Trustees believe that this city ought to have a lower rate for electricity used in street lighting. The rate charged the city is 7 cents, the same as is charged householders.

At the meeting of the trustees last night, Trustees Smith and Newton were appointed as a committee to interview the Edison Company to see what can be done about getting a lower rate. This committee was also instructed to make an investigation in municipal lighting systems in Southern California.

C. A. Harniss and son of Santa Ana were given the bill posting rights for Orange under a recently passed ordinance. The firm is to erect galvanized billboards at places to be selected by the trustees.

POPULAR HABITS AND COST OF LIVING

A congress has been called for October 26, 27 and 28 at Chicago, to formulate a program for reducing the cost of living. There is undoubtedly much that can be done to lower prices through a more economical distribution of food products. But living costs are so affected by popular habits and whims that no economic program can wholly meet the situation.

A friend from another town was giving a little illustration of this as he saw it on his vacation. Having taken a cottage at a summer resort, and as summer resort prices are commonly high, he thought his living costs would be more than at home. But they proved to be lower. Meats in particular did not seem to cost much more than half as much as at home.

In his home town the meat and grocery business is carried on by a large number of small stores. They rarely advertise their goods, and are content to run along in a small way, having to get good prices to pay expenses.

At the summer resort the grocery and meat business was mostly done by a large establishment. The summer people came to the store, paid cash, and carried away all but very heavy goods. There was no mountain of bad debts to charge up to paying customers. No wonder it could and did sell cheap.

The American town concentrates its places of business in a congested district, where a heavy rental must be paid. It all comes out of the consumer. If people were only willing to walk a little more, a store could locate a little out of the center and reduce its rental charge. As a matter of fact, this is frequently done and is made highly successful by advertising freely to draw the people to the store, but some merchants do not realize how easily that can be accomplished.

The Cost of Living Congress, therefore, confronts not merely awkward and primitive systems of distribution, but certain popular habits and inclinations that are a big factor in this problem.

SCHOOL PROBLEMS

The opening of fall term of school is watched with keen interest by the parents. They are anxiously inquiring as to who the teachers are to be, and how far they have the magical and too rare gift of interesting children.

This is a reminder of the remark a school committeeman once made to a young teacher. She had complained that she found her children inattentive. She was at her wits end to know what to do to keep the children at work.

"Oh, all you have to do is just to interest them in their studies," was the reply. It is very easy to say, but thousands of teachers find it infinitely difficult to do.

It can not be said that the Little Red School House of long ago was any more successful in dealing with this problem. A very thorough drill was given in certain fundamentals. The pupil made a very creditable appearance on examination day, with his long repetition of tables and rules by heart. But there was too much memory work, and too little reasoning on the part of the pupil.

When the old-time school studied history most of the pupils learned to repeat the book by heart. If they missed a word or a sentence it might so throw them off their track that they would completely flunk. They did not grasp the central idea of a paragraph so that if they forgot the particular phraseology they could tell it in their own words.

The modern school, with all its experimenting and frequent superficiality, does seem to interest the children better than the old school did. A great many teachers fail to do it, but if they are thus lacking they usually have to quit the business. Their results are too poor to meet modern needs.

Usually the bright faces of the little learners show that they are not indifferent to their work, nor unresponsive to a well qualified teacher. The spirit of rivalry is a great thing to stir a class. If the youngsters can be got to think problems out for themselves, to discuss the whys and wherefores, rather than to take what the text books say so blindly, there will be life in the school.

The agents of the British government and its allies are in this country seeking to obtain a big loan. For what purpose? For constructing railroads, factories or homes? For draining swamps or watering deserts? No, not for any such humane and reasonable object, but for the devil's own work of destruction. They want to use American money to raise more hell in Europe. (I believe it was Sherman who said, "War is hell.") While they are being banqueted by the big bankers in the performance of their very neutral act of soliciting "all the money we can get at 5 per cent," our secretary of state is hauling over the coals the Austrian ambassador, who is caught in the very unneutral act of trying to urge upon his countrymen that it is wrong for them to work in American factories making ammunition with which to kill their own fathers and brothers. "Oh, consistency, thou art a jewel!"

If these gentlemen succeed in luring the savings of the small investor into their pockets, if they deplete this country of the immense amount of money called for as a war loan, what will be the natural result? Here is a problem for every citizen and for every country banker to consider most seriously. The result will be that within a short time the money stringency will become so serious as to raise interest rates out of sight. There will be no money available for legitimate business. The constructive work of this country must come to a standstill. We farmers will be the first and foremost to suffer, because as a class we are so largely dependent upon loans to carry us through the harvesting season, and to aid us in setting out orchards, build houses and barns, and buy stock. The small business man will feel the sting next, and following in line the working class of people, and all the rest. Will 5 per cent compensate this country for the distress that will be caused to our people? Some of the belligerent nations are nearly bankrupt now. In fact, if it were not so they would not have to come here to ask for American money. Suppose they get the loan, what about the security and the interest? Since it is proposed to use up the money in smoke, noise and destruction, it can not be considered as a business investment promising future returns. Their people will have to be burdened with heavy war taxes to pay principal and interest. Might this not lead to a revolution and overthrow of the government which would lead to a repudiation of the debt? Where then is your security? Such a happening is easily within the range of possibilities. If the Welsh miners could strike, crippling the British government while at war, something far worse might easily happen under severe stress.

Is it not possibly the duty of our secretary of the treasury to take these big bankers by the ear and tell them that the relation between the United States government and the banks of this country, big or little, is too close to be jeopardized by such a loan? It must be considered that this gigantic money transaction is not a private affair of a few big bankers, but that it constitutes a national affair in which the United States treasury and the people are most vitally interested. Any move of the big bankers in the direction of financing such a loan must be considered as "deliberately unfriendly" toward the United States, a neutral nation.

If you or I should go to our local banker and ask for a little loan, "all he could possibly spare at the lowest interest rate," he would look up and say: "What for?" We would tell him we wish to invest in firecrackers and such, to make some noise and smoke and shoot up our neighbors and raise the roof generally, then what would he say? Oh, I leave it for you to imagine. If then in ordinary life we do no such foolish things and sane people have established it as a principle that a loan must be based on some useful purpose, some constructive object, is this principle to be cast aside in national life? The danger is too great to be passed by lightly.

At the outbreak of the war we were asked by the president to keep quiet and remain neutral. We thought it good advice and followed it. But shall we be so craven not to protest in the face of an imminent disaster to our own nation?

Do the allies expect to shift the burden of this debt on to the cruel enemy? In that case we must say: "You must catch your bear before you can skin him." There might be some little difficulty in collecting that debt from the other fellow.

Intimates Judgment

After taking the evidence in the appeal case of C. S. Hemstreet against Lee Collins, Judge Thomas intimated this morning that he would affirm the judgment of Justice Shirley of Huntington Beach. However, attorneys desired to submit the case on briefs, and that will be done.

Hemstreet gave $50 cash bail to City Recorder Collins of Newport Beach for Frank McIntyre, charged with resisting an officer. Later a disturbance case was brought against McIntyre in Santa Ana. The cash bail was transferred to Justice Cox by Collins on an order from McIntyre. McIntyre was found guilty, and the $50 was used to pay the fine.

Hemstreet sued for $50, saying he never intended to put up bail for McIntyre in the Santa Ana case. Justice Shirley gave judgment to Hemstreet against Collins, and Collins appealed.

Stipulate Judgment

When Judge Thomas took up the case of T. C. Garnett against Arthur Keach it was stipulated by Attorneys Cain for the plaintiff and Bishop for the defense that judgment be that a note for $235 given Keach by the rescinded Keach is in San Quentin serving a five-year term for fraud. Among representations on which he was found guilty was that the note, which Garnett had signed, was good at a local bank. As a matter of fact Garnett was suing to rescind the note because it was given in payment for a team that he says was almost worthless.

Notice of Appeal

Notice of appeal has been given by the defendant in the case of T. G. Drips of Fullerton against A. Moore. Drips sued for title to an orange orchard because the defendant had not made payments, and got judgment.

Named Appraisers

J. N. Anderson, W. F. Menton and J. C. Burke have been appointed to appraise the estate of Lee Ferrones.

Awoke Too Late

A. S. Milner, a dairyman, says that he fell for the line of talk given him by N. W. Cooper, a stock salesman. Five days after Milner signed his name as Cooper wanted it signed, Milner says he realized that all was not right. He demanded that Cooper return his $440 and his note for $660, but neither was returned. That is why Milner is suing.

The complaint filed by Attorney F. C. Spencer of Anaheim states that Milner was unused to corporations and stocks and knew nothing of the "wiles and blandishments of a solicitor for the sale of stock." That is why he listened with favor to what he says was told to him by Cooper, who says represented the Bankers' Bond & Mortgage Company, the defendant in the case.

Milner declares that Cooper told him that the company was doing a flourishing banking business and had the year previous paid ten per cent dividends and was just about to declare another ten per cent dividend, that all of the stock was sold except just 300 shares treasury stock, ten shares of which Milner might have the privilege of buying for $110 a share. Milner bought. He paid $440 cash and gave his note for $660.

It is now declared that Cooper's representations were meant to and did deceive Milner, and that he was defrauded. It is declared that the company never did do a banking business, had never paid any dividends and that its stock was not worth over $30 a share.

"The District Attorney"

This splendid picture, shown at Clune's last evening, is one of the best seen in Santa Ana. It is full of stirring scenes, and the acting is all that could be desired. They story deals with the bribing of the city warrant clerk by a corrupt political gang, so that he would forge the vouchers and obtain auto money.

He is caught and sentenced to fifteen years in prison. During the time he is incarcerated a new district attorney is elected, and what he does to obtain the clerk's pardon makes up one of the most human down-to-the-minute pictures ever produced. It should be seen by all who like drama of the finer sort. This picture will be shown again this evening.

Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at Clune's will be seen "Should a Mother Tell," the great New York success.

At the Lyric

Charlie Chaplin, the king of the stars is appearing at the Lyric Theatre tonight in a two-act scream, entitled "A Jitney Elopement." With other photoplays an evening of splendid enjoyment will be enjoyed by the lover of the silent art. The same program will be presented Wednesday matinee and night.

PLEASING RECITAL

Mrs. M. V. Budrow Gives Delight to Music Lovers At Mission Inn

The following clipping from the Riverside Press will be of interest to many Santa Ana friends of Mrs. M. V. Budrow, who has often visited at the home of her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Budrow, of 1119 Spurgeon street, Santa Ana.

Mrs. Budrow delighted the Ebell members with her singing at one of their meetings during the past year and she has also sung at the services of the Congregational Church. She is now visiting a few days at the home of W. C. Budrow, where her friends are taking the opportunity of congratulating her on this recent success.

"Mrs. M. V. Budrow gave great pleasure to a large company of people who gathered in the cloister room of the Mission Inn last evening to hear her in recital. Mrs. Budrow has for the past two months been the soloist at the Inn, but those who have heard her in the necessarily restricted selections which she has given during that time, were delightfully surprised in the pretentious program which she gave last evening.

"The careful training which Mrs. Budrow received at the Royal Conservatory at Madrid, Spain, as well as from prominent teachers in Europe, was evidenced in her artistic and intelligent interpretations of her widely varying offerings last evening. Mrs. Budrow's voice is a dramatic soprano of power and brilliance, and she is possessed of a dramatic appreciation of her numbers, which adds to the pleasure of her singing.

"Particularly appealing was her singing of 'Connais tu le Pays' (Dost Thou Know That Sweet Land) from Mignon, in which the mezzo voice passages were effectively sung. Another number delighting the audience was a haunting Arabian melody by the composer Lauranta.

A refreshing contrast to the dramatic operatic numbers was a group of dainty little verses set to music by Frank Colby of Los Angeles, called 'In a California Garden,' the whimsical little songs being sung in quaint English by Mrs. Budrow.

"Receiving deserved applause was Budrow's own composition, 'Spanish Serenade,' which has been dedicated to the Mission Inn. This number will be published in the near future.

"Mr. Harold Gleason, organist and pianist at the Inn, acted as accompanist for Mrs. Budrow, fulfilling this demanding position in a very satisfactory manner. Mr. Gleason also contributed a piano solo to the program, a number which he played so delightfully that an encore was demanded by his audience.

"Mrs. Budrow also was forced to respond to encore numbers before her audience was willing to let her depart. It is to be regretted that Mrs. Budrow has not been able to give other programs similar to last evening's before leaving Riverside. She left today for Los Angeles, her home, where she plans to appear in recital this winter."

THE QUITTER

It ain't the failures he may meet
That keeps a man from winnin',
It's the discouragement complete
That blocks a new beginnin';
You want to quit your habits
bad;
And, when the shadows fittin'
Make life seem worthless an' sad,
You want to quit your quittin'!

You want to quit a-layin' down
An' sayin' hope is over,
Because the fields are bare an' brown
Where once we lived in clover.
When jolted from the water-closet,
It's painful to be hittin'
The earth; but make another start.
Cheer up, an' quit your quittin'!

Although the game seems rather stiff,
Don't be a doleful doubter;
There's always one more inning
if You're not a down-and-out-er.
But fortune's pretty sure to flee
From folks content with sittin'
Around an' sayin' life's N. G.—
You've got to quit your quittin'.

SERENADING PARTY

Santa Ana Band and Post Office Force Join In Welcoming Newly Weds

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Kelly were heartily welcomed into the ranks of the newly weds last evening, realizing anew what a host of good friends they have in Santa Ana.

Mr. Kelly, who is a popular member of the Santa Ana band, and his bride had just returned from their honeymoon trip, via automobile, to the California fairs, and had scarcely thrown open the doors of their pretty new bungalow on East Walnut street when they were greeted by a beautiful serenade given by the band, of which Santa Ana is justly so proud.

The self-invited guests who arrived so opportunely to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Kelly, presented them with a handsome oak, leather upholstered rocking chair. Their gift and the music was highly appreciated. Mr. Kelly responding with hearty thanks and a treat of choice cigars.

Elmer Thompson, the gay "drum-major" of the Santa Ana band and also member of the Post Office force who has recently returned from a vacation trip, bringing with him a charming eastern bride, was remembered with double celebration of this important event.

The Post Office force arrived first and while receiving the welcome of the honorees, the serenading party announced its arrival and was invited in to share in the refreshments of ice cream and delicious home-made cakes furnished by Mr. Thompson's co-workers at the Post Office, assisted by their wives.

After enjoying this treat, the band "boys" presented Mr. and Mrs. Thompson with a handsome leather upholstered rocker, and gave the right of way to the first comers, giving several splendid selections before their departure.

The serenaders included W. Frank Harris, C. C. Langley, Earl Glenn, J. Matthews, J. A. Overman, C. H. Baird, C. C. Nuckolls, A. B. Butler, E. M. Galbraith, J. R. Smith, Albert Hill, W. B. Jennings, C. W. Brakeman, Robt. Wilmer, Albert Rohrs, George Rohrs, and E. H. Holcomb.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson are temporarily residing with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Thompson, 820 East Fourth street, where games and music merrily whiled away the evening hours. Mrs. Chas. Johnson sang a beautiful solo, accompanied by Mrs. C. C. Langley, the former playing the accompaniment for the pleasing solo of Mrs. Chas. Berry.

Several splendid readings, given by G. J. Gibson, added to the pleasure of the company, the host also entertaining with a vocal selection, his accompaniment being played by his bride, with whom all were delighted to become acquainted.

Before their departure, Chas. Winans, one of the oldest of the Post Office carriers, in behalf of the entire force, presented Mr. and Mrs. Thompson with another handsome leather upholstered rocker, for which the young couple gave their heartfelt thanks.

The following members of the Post Office force and their wives enjoyed the merry evening: Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Winans, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Langley, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Purdom, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. COMMITTEES CHOSEN

Plans For Big Rebekah Celebration Are Radically Progressing

The evening of October 13 has been chosen for the big celebration which will fittingly commemorate the founding of the Rebekah order, 64 years ago. This was the only definite decision made by the joint committee, which met last evening. However, plans are now in progress and with the splendid committees appointed the affair promises to be a great success.

The date has been changed from September 20 to October 13 on account of so many of the Captions planning to attend the Sovereign Grand Lodge at San Francisco. Mrs. B. E. Utley, Mrs. G. E. Aches, pains and ills caused by the kidneys failing to do their work and throw the poisonous waste from the system yield quickly to Foley Kidney Pills. HUNGARIAN CLAIMS HE IS AN AMERICAN
Seeks to Prove That He Is a Citizen of United States Through Naturalization

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 14.—In an effort to prove that the French government seized an American vessel when it commandeered his yacht, the "Polna," in the harbor at Marseilles, Count Rudolph Festio de Pelma, a Hungarian nobleman, today took initial steps toward having his naturalization papers restored here. Count Pelma claims he was granted naturalization papers in San Francisco on April 6, 1906, and that they were destroyed in the fire of April 16, 1906. One of the Count's witnesses was the late Col. J. C. Kirkpatrick, proprietor of the St. Francis Hotel.

United States Deputy Attorney Jordan has cabled to the American consul general at London, asking him to get a deposition from Mrs. Winifred A. Stone, who, the Count declares, saw his naturalization papers.

In 1913 the Count bought the yacht Thistle from Robert E. Todd of New York for $260,000 and changed her name to the Polna. With Countess Pelma, who was Alice Wetherbee, daughter of Gardner Wetherbee, a New York banker, the Count went cruising in the Mediterranean. Last September they went to Marseilles, France. The yacht was seized by the French government. According to the Count's attorneys he admits it was flying the Hungarian flag, but maintains the boat was an American vessel. Under the American law, a foreigner cannot run a boat under American registry.

THIN PEOPLE CAN INCREASE WEIGHT

Thin men and women who would like to increase their weight with 10 or 15 pounds of healthy "stay there" fat should try eating a little Sargol with their meals for a while and note results. Here is a good test worth trying. First weigh yourself and measure yourself. Then take Sargol—one tablet with every meal—for two weeks. Then weigh and measure again. It isn't a question of how you look or feel or what your friends say and think. The scales and the tape measure will tell their own story, and many thin men and women we believe can easily add from five to eight pounds in the first fourteen days by following this simple direction. And best of all, the new flesh stays put.

Sargol does not of itself make fat, but mix with your food, it aims to turn the fats, sugars and starches of what you have eaten, into rich, ripe fat producing nourishment for the tissues and blood—prepare it in an easily assimilated form which the blood can readily accept. Much of this nourishment now passes from your body as waste. But Sargol works to stop the waste and do it quickly and to make the fat producing contents of the very same meals you are eating now develop pounds and pounds of healthy flesh between your skin and bones. Sargol is safe, pleasant, efficient and inexpensive. All leading druggists in this vicinity sell it in large boxes—forty tablets to a package—on a guarantee of weight increase or money back as found in each large box—Advertisement.

SUPERVISORS OF COUNTY SUE FOR $11,000 DAMAGES

Man Says He Fell Through Bridge and Would Hold Individuals Responsible

J. E. Woods, a steam engineer, has brought suit for $11,000 damages against Supervisors H. E. Smith, T. B. Talbert, William Schumacher, F. W. Struck and Jasper Leck as individuals. Woods alleges that on October 19 he fell through a defective bridge across a drainage ditch near Bolsa, and that he received permanent injuries to one leg. He seeks to hold the county dads responsible for his injuries.

The complaint in which Woods outlines his cause of action was filed this morning by Attorney F. C. Spencer of Anaheim.

In brief, the allegations made by Woods are that there is a county road known as the Old Newport road running east from Wintersburg. Across Drainage Ditch No. 2 near Bolsa was a bridge, which in December, 1913, became weakened and unsafe for travel. It is stated that the condition of the bridge was brought to the notice of the members of the Board of Supervisors, but that the bridge remained "injured, cracked and weakened" until October 19, 1914, the day when it went down, taking Woods with it.

In describing his injuries Woods says that he was cut, shocked, bruised and injured and was made sick, sore, lame and disabled, and his right leg and ankle were bruised and crushed. It is stated that the injuries to the leg were permanent, and that Woods has been unable to follow his trade of steam engineer. The court is asked to give him judgment for $10,000 for damages and $1,000 for loss of wages.

The county is not a defendant in this case. The five supervisors are named defendants as individuals. The bridge was located in supervisorial district No. 2.

ROTH BUYS VINCENT INTEREST IN STORE

A deal was closed yesterday by which E. E. Vincent disposed of his interest in the Crescent Hardware Company, to his partner, George Roth.

The Crescent Hardware Company was organized about seven years ago, the incorporators being E. E. Vincent, Geo. Roth and J. A. Finley. After Mr. Finley's death, which occurred shortly after the business was started, his interest was purchased by Messrs. Vincent and Roth and under their efficient management the company has grown to be one of the most successful business houses in Santa Ana.

In connection with the hardware store, the company has established a well casing factory which has grown to be an important part of the business.

Mr. Vincent retires from the business in order to devote his time to other interests and to recuperate his health which for the past year has been slightly impaired. Roy Vincent, who has been associated with his father, has also severed his connection with the business in order to take up a different line. It is scarcely necessary to add that both will continue to reside here and will always be active in the affairs of the city.

Geo. Roth has lived in Santa Ana for twenty-eight years and has hosts of friends who will wish him the greatest possible success.

IN THE JUSTICE COURT

JAIL SENTENCE IS GIVEN MAN INTOXICATED IN AN AUTO

Fifteen Days For Buena Park Driver Whose Machine Went Into Ditch

This morning H. Misenheimer of Buena Park was sentenced to fifteen days in the county jail for driving an automobile while he was intoxicated. "The practice in this court is to send to jail any man found guilty of driving an automobile when he is intoxicated," said Justice Cox, "and you are no exception."

Justice Cox declined to allow a fine. Misenheimer owns a poolroom and cigar store at Buena Park. He has also been running an automobile as a jitney. Yesterday afternoon he was returning from Newport Beach without a passenger. Sheriff Jackson got a telephone message stating that a man evidently under the influence of liquor was driving toward Santa Ana. Jackson went out to meet the man, and found the man and the machine.

The machine was in a deep ditch beside the road where it crosses the alkali flat on the Newport road. That the machine went off the road without tipping over was a marvel to Jackson. The driver kept the machine plowing along for nearly 100 yards before it came to a stop.

Misenheimer's wife was in court this morning when her husband was sent to jail.

Charges Forgery

A complaint has been sworn to by A. M. Lorenzen of Olive charging J. W. Kinkadee with forgery. It is alleged that Kinkadee passed a $16 check at the store of Kusel & Lorenzen at Olive on August 28, to which the name of J. B. Handy had been forged. The check was made out to "G. K. Williams," which name with no other endorsement appears on the back of the check. To give the check an appearance of being genuine there was written upon it "For labor in full." The National Bank of Orange returned

FRENCH REMEDY AIDS STOMACH SUFFERERS

France has been called the nation without stomach troubles. The French have for generations used a simple mixture of vegetable oils that relieve stomach and intestinal ailments and keep the bowels free from foul, poisonous matter. The stomach is left to perform its functions normally. Indigestion and gastritis vanish.

Mr. Geo. H. Mayr, a leading druggist of Chicago, cured himself with this remedy in a short time. The demand is so great that he imports these oils from France and compounds them under the name of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. People everywhere write him and testify to the marvelous relief they have received using this remedy—one dose will rid the body of poisonous accretions that have accumulated for years and convince the most chronic sufferer from stomach, liver or intestinal troubles.

Mayr's Wonderful Remedy is sold by leading druggists everywhere with the positive understanding that your money will be refunded without question or quibble if ONE bottle fails to give absolute satisfaction.—Advertisement.

BACHELOR GIRLS OUT OF PLACE IN TEACHING

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 14.—Mrs. Bertha Chapman Cady, of New York, head of the American Social Hygiene Association, declares bachelor girls out of place in teaching, as romantic notions fill their heads and increases mathematics for children. Mrs. Cady declared that only mothers should be employed as teachers, as a "single woman becomes peevish as she grows older. Because she has no children she is more apt to become sharp and impatient." Mrs. Cady advocated sex truths in schools.

Mrs. Best was appointed by Mrs. Lawton, president of the Southern California Federation of Women's Clubs, as forestry representative of the federation in Imperial county, where Mrs. Best is prominent in club work. PICTURES DECLARED A PHOTOGRAPHY MARVEL

Those who saw "The puppet Crown" at the West End Theater last night are fully satisfied that the production well deserves its reputation of being the best pictures from a photographer's point of view yet shown in the movies. The detail is wonderfully clear, the background showing up almost as clearly as the foregrounds. Aside from being a photographic marvel, "The Puppet Crown" is intensely interesting as a stirring romance.

BREA EXHIBIT AT FAIR WILL BE LARGE ONE

Plans are being made by the Brea Chamber of Commerce for exhibits at the Orange County Fair in October, which, if they mature, will result in the most extensive displays of any to be seen at the fair grounds. At least, according to announcement of Dr. H. J. Stevens today, no exhibitors have come forth with plans which will eclipse the proposed Brea display.

"So far," said Dr. Stevens, "it looks as though Brea will have the most products to display at the fair. However, we have a very great number of exhibits promised which will come very near equalling that which the oil town proposes to have."

"Inquiries in regard to space in the exhibition tents are rolling in steadily. It is now certain that the fair in October will be one of the most representative affairs of its kind ever held in Southern California."

"This morning I met the president and secretary of the Orange Chamber of Commerce and they gave me practical assurance that their organization will have an exhibit at the fair. The Chamber will meet Thursday evening and it is virtually assured that an exhibition will be arranged for at that time."

Dr. Stevens states that interest in the fair is keen in every section of the county. Horticulturists, stock raisers and in fact men in every line of business are evincing an interest and it is certain that the exhibits at the fair will be a revelation for diversity and quantity.

Subscriptions are still being received daily by Dr. Stevens and C. D. Hayes, the fair boosters. Hayes is in Los Angeles today on business connected with the fair.

Vacation season is almost over and this will be "get ready" week for the girls and boys. We are ready to help you out.

We have just received a case of beautiful gingham—just the thing for that new school dress. These gingham are the kind that usually sell at 12½c. We marked them 10c for a hummer, but for this week we will sell them at 9c per yard.

Those Devonshire cloths which we are selling at 13c will make a dandy dress for the school room. Ask to see them.

We also have a beautiful line of Galatea in all colors.

If you haven't time to make a dress we have them ready made in gingham, percales, galateas, etc. We are making special prices for this week. Take a look at them.

WORTH IT'S WEIGHT

IN GOLD is the box of fine candy you get here. Worth it because each piece of the candy is a lump of the sweetest pleasure. Worth it because it is as wholesome as it is delicious and that is saying a lot. Worth it because the pleasure you can gain by the purchase of a box is "above gold and beyond rubies."
